Public Service Commission Instruction (of 06th June 2013)

Ethical Conduct in Government

Pursuant to the “RMI Procurement Code 44 MIRC Chapter 1, Section 190, sub-sections 1-4, Ethics in Government Act of 1993, Title 3 MIRC, chapter 17, Part II, sub-sections 5 & 6 and RMI Public Service Commission’s Values”, all GRMI Ministries and Agencies Heads and employees are to, as much as possible, (1) refrain from any and all GRMI Procurement processes that they might have direct or indirect private gains; (2) refrain from using his/her office for private gain; (3) give due disclosure of any conflict of interest such official or employee has or may have in the performance of his or her duties and excuse himself/herself of any involvement on the matter in his or her capacity as such an official or employee. Failure to so adhere shall result in a breach of ethical standards and, in addition, may constitute an offense under the Criminal Code, as amended, or otherwise.
